9. Detailed Selection Procedure

o The guideline, application form, and university information will be available at the websites of NIIED (www.niied.go.kr), GKS (www.gks.go.kr), Korean Embassies, and entrusted domestic universities.

o For applicants who apply for KGSP via overseas Korean Embassies

- (1st Selection) Korean Embassies make its own selection schedule and plan based on the criteria provided by NIIED, and accept the applications. They select 1.5 times as many candidates as their quota from the pool of applicants and recommend them to NIIED.

- (2nd Selection) NIIED Selection Committee selects as many successful candidates as each embassy quota amongst the pool of candidates recommended by the Embassies.

- (3rd Selection) NIIED submits the documents of successful candidates to their 3 universities of indicated preference, and requests admission of the candidates into their master's or doctoral programs. The universities have to notify the result to the candidates and NIIED by the designated date. The candidates who gain admission from more than one university will have to make a final decision and notify their respective local Korean Embassy and NIIED by the designated date. Only the candidates who gain admission within the 3rd Selection period can be accepted as official KGSP scholars.

o For applicants who are recommended by government departments

- * The applicants recommended by government departments are mainly government officials or experts attached to public duties. General applicants cannot be accepted through into this application category.
- (1st Selection) The Korean Government Departments request their counterpart government departments in the designated countries to select as many candidates as their quota. The counterpart government departments meets the quota of candidates, and recommend them to NIIED via the Embassy of Korea in their home countries.
- (2nd Selection) The NIIED Selection Committee judges the qualification of candidates, and determines the successful candidates.
- (3rd Selection) NIIED submits the documents of successful candidates to their already-designated universities, and requests admission of the successful candidates into their master's or doctoral programs. The universities have to notify the result to the candidates and NIIED by the designated date. Only the candidates who gain admission within the 3rd Selection period can be accepted as official KGSP scholars.
- * In case that the universities to which the candidates applied are not designated by the government departments, the candidates will have to choose 3 universities amongst the 50 listed, and apply for admission to them.

o For applicants who apply for KGSP via entrusted domestic universities

- (1st Selection) Each entrusted university will draft its own selection schedule and plan based on the criteria provided by NIIED, and accepts the applications. Each entrusted university will select up to 10 candidates from all the quota-assigned countries and recommend them to NIIED. They cannot recommend more than 2 candidates from a single country.
- (2nd Selection) NIIED Selection Committee selects as many successful candidates as each Country's quota from all the candidates recommended by the universities.

- (3rd Selection) The candidates who are selected in the NIIED Selection Committee will be accepted to the university which recommended them, and also be accepted as official KGSP scholars.

o For applicants who apply for KGSP via Korean adoption associations

- *Only Korean adoptees who have foreign citizenship can apply for this program via Korean adoption associations. General applicants cannot be accepted through this application category.
- (1st Selection) Korean Adoptions Associations make its own selection schedule and plan based on the criteria provided by NIIED, and accept the applications. They select the most appropriate applicants and recommend them to NIIED.
- (2nd Selection) NIIED Selection Committee selects 15 successful candidates from all the applicants recommended by the various Korean Adoption Associations around the world.
- (3rd Selection) NIIED submits the documents of each successful candidate to his or her respective 3 universities of indicated preference, and requests admission of the applicant into his or her master's or doctoral program. The universities have to notify the result to the candidates and NIIED by the designated date. The candidates who gain admission from more than one university have to make a final decision and notify their Adoption Association and NIIED by the designated date. Only the candidates who gain admission within the 3rd Selection period can be accepted as official KGSP scholars.

“Korean Government Scholarship Program for Graduate Students”

Pledge (서약서)

As an applicant for the 2011 “Korean Government Scholarship Program (KGSP) for Graduate Students”, I pledge to abide by the following rules:

- (1) To refrain from violation of university regulations and to fulfill my obligations as a student to the best of my ability.
- (2) To behave in a manner appropriate to Korean culture and society, and not to participate in any form of political activity (such as organizing a political party, joining a political party, attending political meetings, publishing political articles and declarations, organizing or participating in demonstrations of a political nature, and so on).
- (3) To accept responsibility for paying any debts incurred in Korea
- (4) To agree with NIIED's decision concerning the program and the institution of the Korean language course.
- (5) To abide by all terms and regulations set by NIIED.
- (6) To permit NIIED to use my personal information contained within the application documents for the purposes of admission decision.

If I am proved to have violated any of the above or to have made a false statement in my application documents, I shall accept any resolution or penalty made by NIIED, even when it may/might result in suspension, revocation or withdrawal of my scholarship.

I was informed and fully understand that KGSP students are not permitted to transfer schools for the entire duration of scholarship after confirming their host institution.

PERSONAL MEDICAL ASSESSMENT

Applicants are not required to undergo an authorized medical exam before passing the 2nd Selection with NIIED; however, all successful applicants must take a medical exam after the 2nd Selection (including an HIV and TBPE drug test) in accordance with the requirements of the Korea Immigration Service and the KGSP. If the results show that the applicant is unfit to be a KGSP scholar, he/she may be disqualified.

The TBPE (tetrabromophenolphthalein ethyl ester) drug tests are for evaluating past usage of stimulant drugs.
